The Moscow scientific research institute of Acupuncture, located on Petrovsky bulvar, has become by the center of auriculotherapy studying in the USSR. Since it's opening (1977), phylogenetic and anatomic physiological auriculotherapy bases have been studied in this institute under management of professor R.A. Durinyan. Several scientific monographs, dedicated to the matters of the auriculo-micro-puncture sanogenesis and of the clinical application, were published. The scientific activity of E.S. Velhover, R.A. Durinyan, F.G. Portnov is more noticeable among the famous auriculotherapy specialists of the Soviet period in the Russian history. The Russian publishing house Medicine (Moscow) still republishes the claimed "Atlas of the clinical auriculotherapy" by doctor Yakov Pesikov (the Ukraine, Donetsk). During several decades auriculotherapy is being studied in the system of the state doctor's and candidate's dissertational researches.
